

JILL NAGLE

DISMANTLING WHITE SUPREMACY MYTHOLOGY

Jill Nagle is a white anti-racist and interpersonal communication geek who runs workshops for white anti-racists to take leadership around dismantling white supremacy mythology, starting with having conversations with other white people.

She edited Whores and Other Feminists, co-edited Male Lust: Pleasure, Power, and Transformation, and has been published or reviewed more than 150 times in the genres of business, personal growth, fiction, nonfiction, poetry, and social commentary, including American Book Review, Curve, Bitch, The Women's Review of Books, Zendesk, and many more.

She is currently seeking representation for her book-in-progress, Skin in the Game: How White People Benefit from Dismantling White Supremacy.
